What year did you graduate from PJP?

- 1998

What is your degree?

- M.S. in Applied Behavior Analysis

What profession are you involved in? Description?

- I'm a Board Certified Behavior Analyst; BACB.com will have a thorough description, but to put it succinctly, I use the science of Behavior Analysis to change behavior and teach skills that will have a socially significant impact on the lives of consumers. More specifically, I use the science for children diagnosed with developmental disabilities such as autism.

What is a fond memory or memorable moment you have concerning PJP?

- So many....Powder Puff stands out. Mainly the friendships that were established that still last today.

Are there any major events since Pope John Paul that have occurred in your life that you would like to share?

- Becoming a father (twice) is probably the most important thing that's happened in my life since PJP. LSU in Paris was also memorable.

How do you feel you have given back to the community?

- I coach my son's T-Ball team. I also feel that my profession fulfills this task.

What are some of your hobbies?

- I am a musician and a runner, I also enjoy the two times a year a get to hike on the Appalachian Trail
