This "Year in Review" - as of this print - is only an overall guide to specifically reflect days that may affect curriculum & instruction. Dates currently listed are fluid and are subject to changes and additions - given any needed school closures or unexpected occurrences, to ensure the safety and good health of all our students, staff and families as well to offer our students our most viable and quality instructional time. Students should plan to be in class for all instructional hours, and be reminded that liturgical celebrations and grade level retreat days are part of Theology course instruction at PJP.

Still missing from this calendar: Retreat days for our 8th -11th grade levels.
